Press Briefing - Update on the implementation of the immediate and unconditional ceasefire agreement between Cambodia and Thailand

7:00 AM, September 01, 2025

Intervention by H.E. Pen Bona, Royal Government Spokesperson

Cambodia: A Small Country with a Small Population but Gaining Widespread Support and Praise

Up until now, Cambodia has continued to value the ceasefire agreements and has respected this truce diligently. The ceasefire has remained in effect and continues to offer significant benefits to both parties (Cambodia and Thailand), particularly contributing to regional security and stability.

Through sincerity, good faith, a peace-loving spirit, and adherence to international law, Cambodia has gained increasing recognition and praise on the international stage. As a small nation in Southeast Asia, Cambodia draws global attention through its active and principled diplomacy, led by Samdech Thipadei Hun Manet, Prime Minister, and Samdech Techo Hun Sen, President of the Senate, who have placed strong focus on the border dispute with Thailand and have swiftly conveyed Cambodia's true position to the international community.

Furthermore, the unity of the Cambodian people, both domestically and abroad, including Buddhist monks, has been actively engaged in demonstrating the peace-loving spirit, respect for international law, and order, in which they demand that Thailand respect the ceasefire, cease provocations that lead to conflict, and prevent further escalation of hostilities. These efforts have garnered significant international interest in Cambodia.

The unified voice of Cambodia, expressed by both its leaders and citizens, is clear: Cambodia loves peace, respects international law, and seeks peaceful borders, friendship, cooperation, and development. Cambodia does not desire armed conflict. These steadfast principles and actions have been acknowledged by the international community through diplomatic visits by ambassadors, the Interim Observers Team (IOT), foreign officials, and journalists who have come to Cambodia, witnessed the reality on the ground, and helped convey the truth about Cambodia's leadership and people to the world.

In short, Cambodia, a small country with a small population, has received widespread support and praise from many countries worldwide. Nonetheless, the mission is not yet complete; we must continue to maintain this strong national unity to firmly support the government and our brave armed forces.

Press Briefing - Update on the implementation of the immediate and unconditional ceasefire agreement between Cambodia and Thailand

4:00 PM, September 1, 2025

Keynote Address by H.E. LTG. Maly Socheata, the Ministry of National Defense Spokesperson:

This afternoon, I would like to provide an update on developments following the entry into force of the ceasefire between the Cambodian and Thai Armed Forces on July 28, 2025, and the conclusion of the Extraordinary Meeting of the GBC on August 7, 2025, as of today:

1. Starting from 6:00 AM on the 1st of September, 2025, up to 3:00 PM this afternoon, the situation at the frontline, Military Region 4 and Region 5—Preah Vihear, Oddar Meanchey, and Banteay Meanchey Provinces—is currently calm with no new developments reported yet. Our military forces stand strong and are performing their duty with full vigilance in defending the country's sovereignty and territorial integrity. The Royal Government, the Armed Forces, and the people of Cambodia stand firmly united and resolutely determined to defend our territorial integrity, national sovereignty, and dignity.

2. Cambodia's Armed Forces reaffirmed its full commitment to the ceasefire agreement between the Cambodian and Thai Armed Forces reached at Putrajaya on July 28, 2025, and the 13-point agreed minutes adopted during the extraordinary meeting of the GBC held on August 7, 2025, with the observation of Malaysia, the United States of America, and the People's Republic of China.

It should be noted that the ceasefire is widely welcomed and supported by the international community, reflecting the shared aspiration for peace in the region. Cambodia, as a highly responsible and peace-loving country, has been fully adhering to all terms of the ceasefire by resolving to dialogue and cooperation instead of confrontations and conflicts.

Cambodia reaffirmed its stand to resolve the issue peacefully in good faith in accordance with international law, the UN Charter, and the ASEAN Charters. Cambodia called on Thailand to honour all terms stipulated in the ceasefire agreement as well as the spirit of agreement during the Extraordinary GBC Meeting.

In addition, Cambodia reiterated its firm and unequivocal commitment to upholding the spirit of the consensus agreed upon by both parties in the recent Extraordinary Meeting of the RBC, with both parties agreeing to increase confidence to de-escalate tensions and maintain peace along the border, using all necessary mechanisms to resolve differences peacefully and avoid clashes in the spirit of good neighborliness, friendship, and solidarity. And on the occasion when problems arise, both parties shall work together to resolve them through existing mechanisms. In this sense, Cambodia urged that Thailand adhere to the same spirit.

3. At the same time, Cambodia continued to call on the Thai side to implement the above agreement and return 18 of our military personnel to Cambodia so they can reunite with their families, who have been waiting days and nights, every minute and every second, for their return. It is also important to note that Thai soldiers illegally captured this Cambodian military soldier immediately after the ceasefire took effect on the morning of 29 July 2025. As of 4:00 PM on 1 September 2025, their detention has lasted 34 days, 6 hours, and 10 minutes.

The Ministry of National Defense, the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces, and the international community will continuously demand that Thailand uphold its obligation under international law. We wish to underscore that we will never abandon or leave any one of our family members behind. Full implementation of the ceasefire by both sides will increase a favorable atmosphere for restoring peace, stability, and normalcy to the friendship between our two countries.
